STETSON, 12; J. L. I., 0

On Saturday, November 4, the Jacksonville Light Infantry team arrived in DeLand to play a return game with the Stetson team.

Long before the teams arrived on the field the grand stand and returned only a little way by Yancey of the J. L. I.'s. They were unable to make any gains and were forced to punt. Stetson punted back and the ball went out of bounds and went to the J. L. I.'s.

and the end defences good, for the military boys were held for downs, and it was Stetson's ball.

Then followed some good tackle plays, making gains every time, until Duncan went over the goal line for a touch-down in eight minutes after the beginning of the game and Cox kicked the goal.

After the touchdown the ball was brought to the centre of the field and Jones kicked off to Stetson who punted back again. The J. L. I.'s gained 15 yards and being held, punted to Stetson, the ball going out of bounds and being brought in on Stetson's 5-yard line. Kirby punted to the centre of the field.

The 5-yard line was the nearest the visitors came to our goal.

The game became close and warmly contested and when the referee's whistle blew for the end of the first half the ball was on Stetson's 35-yard line. The first half had been a clean, hard fought struggle, and the second half was marked by the same kind of playing. Jones kicked off to Stetson's side lines were crowded with the wearers of the Green and White. The Stetson girls turned out in a body dressed in white trimmed with green and carrying with them the big Stetson banner, which they have held in so many victorious games.

The 'Varsity team was the first to arrive on the field and went through a short signal practice.

When the J. L. I. team came on the field they were given a hearty cheer, and after a little signal practice, Captains Yancey and Duncan tossed for goals and the kick-off. Yancey won and selected the west goal to defend, and to receive the kick-off.

Botts made a pretty kick-off of 40 yards for Stetson, and it was 20-yard line, and Pounds advanced the ball 15 yards, then with scarcely a break Stetson rushed back the J. L. I.'s by tackle plays, using both Botts and Duncan until on a second down Kirby punted the ball to the J. L. I.'s. The visitors made a gain of 15 yards but were penalized for holding. On the next play they punted back up the field. Again by a series of tackle plays Stetson took the ball to within 6 yards of the goal line, when Campbell made one of the prettiest runs of the game for a touch-down. Cox kicked goal. Only a few moments remained during which the ball was punted back and forth. Time was called with the ball on Stetson's territory.

The game by plays:

FIRST HALF.

Botts kicked off to J. L. I.'s 15-yard line. Yancey caught the ball and advanced 5 yards. No gain for J. L. I. Ball kicked to Stetson. Duncan through tackle 4 yards. Ball punted out of bounds and given to J. L. I. Jones 10 yards round end; Bird 5 yards. J. L. I. held for downs. Duncan went through tackle for 10 yards; Botts 8 yards; through tackle Pounds 5 yards; Cox 3 yards; Botts 2 yards; Kirby 4 yards; Duncan 10 yards through tackle for a touch-down.

Cox kicked goal. Jones kicked off to 15-yard line. Stetson punted back to J. L. I., Bird 15 yards. J. L. I. punted on third down, Stetson punted back after an end round end of Botts with no gain. Stetson offside, penalized 5 yards. J. L. I. punt outside; ball comes back to Stetson on her 5-yard line. Stetson punts back: Bird gains 2 yards around end. Time called with ball on Stetson's 20-yard line.

SECOND HALF.

Jones kicks off to Stetson's 20 yard line. Duncan goes through tackle for 15 yards; again goes for 4 yards; Botts for 3 yards; Kirby 2 yards; Duncan 10 yards; Johnston, end around run, 1 yard. Campbell, Q. B. run, tackled for a loss. Punted to J. L. I. Bird around end 2 yards; Jones 5 yards. J. L. I. penalized 15 yards for

CHEER LEADER NEEDED.

What are the lessons to be drawn from Saturday's football game? In what direction does our weakness lie? Certainly not with the team. The score proves that. Not in the size of the crowd, for the gate receipts were satisfactory. Not in the spirit manifested, for it would be hard to imagine a more excited, enthusiastic crowd of people. But this is coming close to the point. The trouble was not with the spirit itself, but rather the means (or rather the lack of means) of giving vent to that spirit. What we needed was a good, lively, enthusiastic cheer leader, someone to keep the crowd together, to watch the various plays and start up the appropriate yells, in short, to organize the rooting and make it count for something. Everybody was bubbling over with excitement which found its inevitable expression in a heterogeneous collection of shrieks, yells, roars, whistles and cat calls, but throughout the whole game there was scarcely a decent, clear-cut, rousing cheer given. We didn't so much as give "Speck" nine raps when he crossed the line for that last glorious touch-down! The only reason was that "everybody's business is nobody's business" and we had no one to start us off. Surely we need a good

CLASS ORGANIZATIONS.

Isn't it almost time for the various classes to do something toward getting together and organizing? Already one month out of the eight has slipped past and another is following close behind it. The senior classes, especially, should get busy for they have lots of work ahead of them, and the sooner they get at it, the better. Don't wait till the year is half over and then put up the plea that "we can't get up any class day exercises because we got such a late start." Start now while there's still plenty of time.

But why should we limit our class organizations to the senior classes? In former years there was probably some excuse, for the number of college students was comparatively small. But this excuse is now obsolete. Our college classes are now all sufficiently large to be organized, and they are growing larger all the time. Under our elective system Freshman, Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors are all mixed up in one grand jumble and nobody knows who's who. Class organization would help solve the difficulty.

The management of the Collegiate Madisonensis mail a copy of the first issue of their paper to each student with the understanding that he is a subscriber unless he returns the paper through the mail as a sign of refusal.

ALUMNI NOTES.

COLLEGE CLASS '05.

Mr. G. C. Staley, who went to Chicago immediately after graduation and did post-graduate work in the University all summer, duly received his A. B. in September, and is now pursuing a course composed entirely of mathematics. Mr. Staley expects to remain in Chicago for the entire school year. In his letter to the Alumni Department he says of his work:—"I have one absolutely beautiful course in Math—Differential Geometry. In beauty, it far surpasses anything prior to it." His letter closes with the following:—"I hope the Collegiate is doing well this year and has a wider circulation than ever, but I wonder how many of the alumni of Stetson University have received a sample copy or have been invited to subscribe to the Collegiate."

Let the Collegiate Board take note of the suggestion and act upon it promptly.

Mr. G. H. Baerecke, also of the college '05, entered the Medical College of Richmond, Va., when it opened in September.

He is very much delighted with the town, the college, the climate and in spite of classes six days in the week he has gained in weight and is enjoying good health.

Miss Eleanor Morrish of the Business Class '05, writes the following from her home in Tarpon Springs:—"I have work here at home, of which I am very glad. I am my own boss, too, have an office in Tarpon and do job work, driving up every other day and then going home in the evening.

"Hope the year may be very prosperous for all and would wish to be remembered to all friends."

Miss Ruth Rich, also of class '05 Business, has a fine position at Rollins and enjoys it very much.

Miss Pelton of the Normal Class '05, writes in part as follows to the Alumni department:

Turnbull Bay, Nov. 3, 1905.—Dear Miss Hampton:—In answer to your letter, I will say I have been at home ever since commencement last, until a week ago, when I came here and began my teaching.

Turnbull Bay, situated three miles north of New Smyrna on the river boasts of four houses on one side of the river and two on the other.

I have a walk of a mile over a sandy road to reach my little one roomed schoolhouse with its ten desks. Eighteen pupils are enrolled ranging from 6 to 16 years in age and graded as high as sixth grade.

I find my training at Stetson a great help to me, especially with the younger pupils.

With best wishes to the Collegiate I remain,

Sincerely yours,
JESSIE PELTON.

MEETING OF THE S. L. S.

The Stetson Literary Society met as usual Saturday evening, November 4. The program for the evening was as follows:

Current events—Miss Armstrong.
Recitation—Miss Manville.
Extemporaneous—Mr. Moffatt.
Parliamentary Practice—Mr. Carlton.

Recess.

Debate—Resolved that the best physical, mental and moral developments result from Monday Holiday:—

Affirmative—Miss Hampton and Mr. Moffatt.

Negative—Mr. Smith and Mr. Van Bise.

Reading of the Stetson Star—Miss Whiting.

Critic—Professor Suhrie.

One of the most interesting features of the evening was the debate, in which those on the affirmative side won. We were all more or less disappointed in not hearing from any but those assigned on the program, as this was a very interesting question and open to all.

Professor Suhrie greatly encouraged us by saying the Stetson Star was progressing. Before long we hope to lead all the papers in DeLand even including the famous Collegiate.

Owing to the excitement of the football and girls down town, the attendance of the Kent Club was small Saturday evening.

The program was changed for two weeks hence, and we will go right to business in the argument of a case.

The program for next Saturday evening is as follows: Declamation by Mr. Gramlin; Debate:
Resolved, That city life is preferable to country life.

The debate Saturday evening was a very good one. Each speaker did his subject justice, and Mr.
Anvil most especially showed his ability to speak to an audience.

After hearing the discussion of the negative the judges were forced to give their decision in favor of that side.

Some of the boys walked down
the hall, we supposed, to be seen:
"Come in boys and we will have a better view."

It devolved upon a teacher

Our good fellow, the "Judge", is sometimes heard to speak of the "Cyclone in Georgia."

One of our members emphatically states that he has up to this time lived 29 years of life as sweet as the southern air as it silters through jungles of Florida roses; but he is now compelled to endure the wicked oppression of authentic disapproval. He further states that he is quite sure it will take the work of a forty-horse snow plow ages before folks can find "where he's at."

The Organ Recital.

The numbers of Prof. Morse's Friday evening organ recital were well selected, appealing to the varied tastes of everyone present. Those who delight in the more majestic compositions were much pleased with the selections "Hosanna" "The Overture to Oberon" and the "Triumphal March from the 'Queen of Sheba'". On the other hand a "Pastorale" by Mack, "Chorus of Angels" and the "Tantosia in the hymn 'Jerusalem, the Golden'" were probably most generally appreciated, as our organ lends itself admirably to the spirit of such compositions.

Y. W. C. A.

Service opened by song and prayer, followed by a discussion on business affairs left over from last meeting. The matter of delegate for the coming convention was decided upon. The president, who had inquired about the convention, authorized by the cabinet, said that in her opinion it seemed best not to send one. After the reading of the Scriptures, our leader, Miss Ryland, gave us the long deferred "Echoes from the Asheville Conference." Long before she had finished the society had caught her enthusiasm, and we regretted that she did not talk longer to us.

Mr. Stanley Woodward led the Y. M. C. A. Thursday night, taking as his topic, "The value of a sense of failure."

Dr. Hulley's subject at Vespers was "The ordinary features of Christ's life and character".

Mr. Henry Herndon is the latest arrival in Stetson Hall.

The organ recital on Friday evening was a joy to all that heard it.

Miss Ethel Hamlin was indisposed and unable to attend school Monday.

Mr. Harry C. Duncan was the guest of Mr. L. P. Mace at the latter's Lake Helen home Sunday.

Ask Ralph Ainsworth if soubrettes are allowed to ride in white passenger coaches in the South.

Mr. Ralph Ainsworth is the victim of a severe cold which caused him to miss his classes Monday.

If you desire an expert at the art to run your auto we advise you to consult Miss Edith Bond.

A late freak of nature was discovered several days ago when about two dozen oranges were found upon a tuft of grass on the north side of Chaudoin.

The Rev. John Black, who was one of the Stetson foot ball subs, left after the game Saturday, for Green Cove Springs where he performed his regular duties as pastor, returning Monday.

Mr. Stetson has just presented the Music school with 4 new pianos. The Department is full to overflowing. Prof. Webb B. Hill, of New York state has been engaged for the Winter term as an additional instructor in vocal.

Miss Elizabeth Munsell is compelled by ill health to give up all her work in the University, excepting music. She will probably leave in a short time for Charlotte Harbor, where she will visit Miss Loraine Chatterton, an old Stetson student.

Captain Duncan entertained the J. L. I. team at East Hall Saturday night. Then after going through all the University buildings, they paid a visit to the Stetson Literary Society. The Jacksonville boys expressed themselves as being well pleased with Stetson.

Mr. Gibbons and Mr. Blocker gave the students a Halloween party in the Gymnasium. It was well attended and a merry time was reported. Fortunes were told and the spirits that rudely disturb our mortal natures on that night were present in large numbers.

The vesper services, the chapel services and the Christain Associations are all well attended. The work of the Christian Associations is very commendable. The students are ready and quick to take part. It is a fine thing that so many professors visit the associations and participate in the work.

Professor Carson, ably assisted by Prof. Suhrie and Prof. Colton, have organized the work of ushering the friends who come to vesper services into their seats. The University, through these men, extends every gracious courtesy to the citizens of the town and others outside the town and invites them to these services.

Special Prices to Students

East Hall has just received the finishing touches of a new coat of paint.

Manager Hamlin left Monday night for Lake City to arrange for foot ball games with the Florida State college at that place.

Mr. H. (in trig. class):—"I can work the example all right, Dean Smith, but I don't know anything about your abbreviated arithmetic."

One of the most striking sights of the foot ball game was Dr. Voorhis' dog dressed in a nondescript green and white coat of the doctor's own manufacture.

Many of those who attended Saturday's game recognized in the J. L. I. centre Mr. John Pope, who was formerly a Stetson law student and who then played center on our own team.

Miss Esther Palmer, who was one of last year's most popular Chaudoin girls, has returned to Stetson after a summer spent at her home in New York. This year she has rooms at Mrs. Moore's.

Thursday Manager Hamlin of the football team made a flying business trip to Rollins College. He returned Friday, having arranged for two games to be played with Rollins in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown were the welcome guests of Dr. and Mrs. Hulley last week. Mr. Brown was once steward of the University and was a very efficient one. The students all loved him and his wife.

Quite a number of Rollins students, among them "Bob" Kennedy, came up Saturday to see the football game and, incidentally, no doubt, to get a few pointers on our team in view of their coming games with us.

This evening Messrs. Lawrence Botts and Bill Ainsworth will tread the rocky, rugged path across the mountains which divide Phi Kappa Delta from the barbarians of the outside world. The members of the organization are looking forward to the event with great enjoyment.

On Monday evening, Oct. 30, Prof. and Mrs. Colton entertained the men in the line of the foot ball team. Then on Wednesday they entertained the backs and the substitutes similarly. Needless to say, both occasions were enjoyable in the extreme and all the boys congratulate Prof. and Mrs. Colton on their happy new home.

Professor Pierce deserves credit for his fine coaching of the second team and the team has responded nobly to his efforts. They are playing winning ball. Woe to the team that meets them. They will think that eleven different kinds of Indians have scalped them in eleven different kinds of ways. Congressman Clark is a great quarter back. Senator Sams cannot be beaten at end. Dominic White is a Stone-wall at guard, while the Chamberlain of the East House is a fine master of ceremonies.

Don't buy a thermometer now; they will be lower in December.

Mr. John Grambling was the guest of Mr. Harry Duncan at dinner Monday evening.

Miss Kate Walker, who has been quite sick for several weeks, is rapidly improving.

Miss Edna Borland is expected to arrive this afternoon, Tuesday, to again enter school.

Miss Loulie Snead and Miss Lucie Crawford were the guests of Mrs. Moore at dinner on Sunday.

Prof. and Mrs. Frost entertained Mr. and Mrs. Colton and Prof. Suhrie at a game dinner on Saturday.

All those not desiring their sherbet are requested to send same to Miss H. H. by whom it will be gratefully received.

THE CHARGE OF THE STETSON TEAM.

(with apologies to Tennyson).

I

Onward to Jacksonville
In trim for the fray
Gaily the foot ball men
Winded their way.
"Courage" the captain said
"Keep cool"—don't loose your head
And we'll win the day.

II

Forward, the Stetson team!
See how their faces beam!
Loudly how their backers scream
Hurrah for Stetson!
Their's not to make reply,
Their's not to reason why
Their's but to do or die
In honor of Stetson.

III

J's to the right of them
J's to the left of them
J's down on top of them
Fought for the ball.
Stormed at with shot and shell
Cheered by the Stetson yell
Down to the goal pellmell
They rush with the ball.

IV

Back to Deland that night
Back from that awful fight
Oh, t'was a welcome sight
Noble old team!
Stormed at with shot and shell
They that had fought so well
Came back the tale to tell
All that was left of them
Left of the team!

When can their glory fade?
Oh, the wild charge they made
In honor of Stetson!
Honor those heroes brave
Honor the team which gave Glory to Stetson.
